Projects

BD LogisticsFlow – Supply Chain Optimization System | Source

Python / JavaScript

- Designed and developed a full-stack logistics optimization system aimed at enhancing transport planning and efficient medical supply distribution across multiple districts in Bangladesh.

Turing Machine Simulator | Source

Java

- Built a modular and interactive Turing Machine simulator written in Java. Engineered to load, parse, and execute varying machine definitions (.tm files) against custom user input strings.

Sportify – Sports Database Management System | Source

Python / React.js / Supabase

- Created a full-stack sports management and live-update web application aggregating real-time data across multiple sports, including football.

BUP-Bus-Tracking-System | Source (Ongoing)

React.js / FastAPI / Supabase

- Developing a real-time, role-based bus tracking system for BUP students and administration, featuring live location updates, route mapping, and estimated time of arrival (ETA) functionality.

Achievements & Certifications

Solvio AI Hackathon 2025 — Participant

October 2025

- Achieved a commendable score of 65/100 in an intensive, AI-focused problem-solving competition.

BUBT Innovatex Hackathon 2025 — Participant

November 2025

- Secured a position in the Top 40 teams, demonstrating strong algorithmic and innovative thinking under time constraints.

- Competed in the highly prestigious International Collegiate Programming Contest (ICPC), securing the 519th rank nationwide.

Co-curricular Activities

BUP Computer Programming Club | General Member

September 2024 – Present

- Actively coordinated inter-departmental programming contests and collaborated with peers to foster a strong coding culture on campus.

Competitive Programming

July 2024 – Present

- Consistently solved complex algorithmic problems across Codeforces, LeetCode, AtCoder, LightOJ, and VJudge using C++, heavily strengthening core Data Structures and Algorithms proficiency.

Notre Dame Media and Communication Club | General Member

2022 – 2023

- Actively participated in various media workshops, event management, and club-driven activities.
